Monday, December 10. 1705.

From the Paris Gazette, dated November 28.

Rome, October 31.

TIS advis'd from Naples, that the Duke d' Escalona has given out such good Orders for clearing the Country of Banditi, that 3 of their Leaders have been kill'd, one of which is the noted Vincenzullo de Genfano, whose Troop was entirely defeated by the Soldiers of the Audience of Montefusco. The Heads of those 3 Leaders being brought to Naples, were carried about the City in Triumph. These Letters say likewise, that several Persons who had some secret way of taking what Words they pleas'd out of Bills or Contracts, and inserting others in their Room, being detected, were all put to the Rack, but that enduring the severest Torture, without accusing each other, they escap'd being punish'd with Death, and were condemn'd to the Gallies.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated December 11.

Rome, November 14. Last Week News came of the Death of Cardinal Radziejowski Primate of Poland, by which a 19th Place in the sacred College is become vacant. This Court appears determin'd still to maintain the Interest of King Augustus; the Pope has caus'd new Briefs to be sent to the Bishops of Poland that had a Hand in the Coronation of King Stanislaus, in which he blames their Conduct, declares he absolutely disapproves it, and exhorts them to quit the Party they have espous'd and reconcile themselves to King Augustus without Delay. The Envoy of Lorraine having had an Audience of Leave, set out from hence to Day to return to the Duke his Master. The Pope has given him several Presents, among them a Piece of the Wood of the true Cross, for the Dutcheffs of Lorraine. Some Persons are appointed to examine the Life of the deceas'd Bishop of Padua Gregorio Barbarigo, in order to his being canoniz'd. Great Wagers were laid here about the taking of Barcelona, but the Person in whose Hands the Sums laid were deposited, has prevented all Dispute by running away with the Money.

From the Leid. and Amst. Gaz. dated Decemb. 10 & 11.

Rome, November 21. The 16th of this Month a Consistory was held; but the Promotion of Cardinals that has been so long expected is still put off. 'Tis believ'd however that Promotion will be made the 14th of next Month; because there is hardly a sufficient number of Cardinals for the necessary Congregations, by reason of the many Vacancies in the sacred College. The Congregation de Ritti has been privately held, in order to the Canonisation of Bishop Gregorio Barbarigo and 4 others, who are adjudg'd to deserve a Place in the Catalogue of Saints of the Romish Church. Count Legnaski in a late private Audience he had of the Pope, deliver'd to him a Letter from King Augustus of Poland his Master, in which his Majesty gave an Account of King Stanislaus's having dispos'd of the Archbishoprick of Gnesna and other vacant Ecclesiastical Benefices, and desir'd his Holiness to disapprove the same; And 'tis said his Holiness has resolv'd to comply with his Majesty's Request, and to confirm the Nomination his Majesty has made of certain Persons to the said vacant Benefices.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated December 11.

From the Camp before Nice, November 25. The 31st in the Night Men were set to Work upon an Intrenchment, for cutting off the Communication between the Castle and the Town, by the Bastion of Proulliere. That Work being very near the Foot of the Glacis, One hundred of the Enemy having with them a certain Number of Workmen, made a Sally the 22d at two in the Afternoon out of their Covert Way: And the Intrenchment being so much expos'd, that it was not proper to leave Men in it in the Day time, the Enemy began to level it; but the first Company of Grenadiers of the Regiment of Hainault kill'd 10 of their Soldiers, and forc'd the rest to retire. At the same time the Enemy made a Sally into the Town on that side next the Sea, but were after a little Dispute driven in again: There was afterwards a short Suspension of Arms, for burying the Dead of both sides: We work hard upon our Batteries, but it will be some Days still before they can be ready. Yesterday 5 of the Enemy's Ships were seen sailing along the Coast towards Genoa; they put a shore at St. Remo a Pacquet of Letters for the Duke of Savoy.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated December 11.

From the Camp at Bischweiler November 22. The Enemy's Horse which is encamp'd on this side of Strasburg, are to have their Winter Quarters higher up in Alsace: The 20th the Marshal de Villars took a Review of his Foot, and has already begun to send them into the Winter Quarters assign'd them. Our Horse are canton'd, but our Foot continue still encamp'd here. The Troops that block up Fort Louis have been reinforc'd by 3 Battalions drawn out of the Lines of Stolhoffen. We continue to work upon Lines and Redoubts to cover our Winter Quarters.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated December 8.

From the Camp at Bischweiler, November 30. The 27th of this Month the Troops of Wirtemberg pass'd the Rhine, to march to their own Country, there to take Winter Quarters. The Enemy's Army commanded by the Marshal de Villars is separated; the Infantry is dispos'd along the Canal of Molsheim; and the Cavalry in the Hill-Country about Colmar, so that in 48 Hours they can all draw together in one Body: They threaten to succour Fort Louis; to prevent which, was in part the reason of our keeping the Field so long. The new Fortifications of Bischweiler, Haguenau and Drussenheim are finish'd. Yesterday 60 Pieces of Cannon were plac'd on the Works of Haguenau, in which great Magazines of Provisions and Ammunition of all sorts are laying up. Fort Louis will be kept close blockt up this Winter; before the end of which it is hop'd the Garrison will be oblig'd to surrender for want of Provisions: A Jew who in the Night time convey'd Provisions into that Place, is seiz'd.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated December 11.

Bischweiler, December 4. The 2d Instant the Imperial Army separated. 3 Regiments of Foot and some Horse are garrison'd in this Place. Count Thungen has left the Command of all the Troops in these Parts to the Count de Fries, and is gone to Treudenthal, whence he is expected back in a Fort-night. We have receiv'd Advice that the Marshal de Villars has order'd some Works to be made with all Expedition at Savern, and on the Canal of Molsheim. The Mortality continues both among our Horses and those of the Enemy.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated December 11.

Strasburg, November 30. The Enemy have for some time work'd Night and Day upon the Fortifications of Drusenheim, with design to hinder our re-victualling Fort Louis; the Garrison of that Place have 3 Months Provisions, and before that Time expires, we hope we shall have an Opportunity to put in a new Supply. There is a talk here that some Troops are to be detach'd to Bavaria, but we cannot learn there is any certain Ground for it.

London, Decembr 10.
